

CAMEE TOOL 7-3: Agreement between MEP Engineer and Consulting Design Professional

ABSTRACT

This document provides a sample agreement that may be used when the MEP Engineer retains the services of another consulting design professional. This sample agreement features:

- Form of Agreement
- Exhibit A, Terms and Conditions
- Exhibit B, Scope of Services
- Exhibit C, for attaching the Prime Agreement

This agreement assumes that the MEP engineer has been retained by a client under another agreement, called the Prime Agreement. The provisions of the Prime Agreement are incorporated into this CAMEE Tool No. 7-3.
