

LDC 2-14: Record Drawing Review

Abstract

Record drawings are normally prepared as a requirement of the authority having jurisdiction over the owner and for the owners' future use on other related projects. Each jurisdiction has its own process and procedure for the preparation and approval of record drawings. It is crucial to determine the process and procedure before preparing the record drawings. This checklist will help the project manager monitor the record drawing preparation and process.