

LDC 2-15: Project Closeout Review

Abstract

Project closeout is an important final step in the project. Accurate recording and storing of project records will minimize the effort of document retrieving in the future in addition to serving as a final check of all project documents.