

Why Your Firm Needs to Belong to the

COPS, a coalition of ACEC's professional surveyors, strengthens the business environment and image of member firms by focusing on quality professional surveying and geomatics services in a competitive global marketplace.

Let COPS help you learn how to turn these seemingly challenging times into an opportunity

Benefits to COPS Membership

- Free, usable products developed by the COPS Business Practices committee, for surveyors by surveyors to help your operations.
- Education through presentations, documents, and the shared experience of firms from all parts of the country. All COPS members receive a discount on COPS-sponsored online seminars.
- A bigger voice on national or regional issues that affect our profession.
- Networking through attendance and participation at seminars, with access to owners, executives and professionals of COPS member firms.

COPS Seven Baselines for Business Practices	Collaborations	Committees
COPS Seven Baselines provide members with a toolkit of forms, contracts and supporting documents for success around the following themes: Culture Planning Education Contracts Policy & Procedures Communications & Correspondence Technical Tools & Documents	COPS maintains active liaisons with: National Council of Examiners for Engineering and Surveying (NCEES) United States Institute of Building Documentation (USIBD) National Society of Professional Surveyors (NSPS)	COPS Steering Committee COPS Business Practices Committee COPS Advocacy Committee