CASE Tool 6-1: CASE Contract Scope Exhibit Checklist

ABSTRACT

The tool will allow the user to input specific project and client information, select typical items included in a structural scope of work by project phase, and customize specific requirements to end with a scope of work document that can be attached to a project proposal and contract. Project information and scope of work is stored in a database for future reference.