LDC 2-B-10: Project Close-Out Review
ABSTRACT

Project closeout is an important final step in the project. Accurate recording and storing of project record will minimize the effort of documents retrieving in the future in addition to serving as a final check of all project documents.