Syska Hennessy Group has acquired two San Diego-based firms, Van Buuren Kimper Engineering and Ericson Lighting Design. As a result, Syska Hennessy's San Diego office will grow to 40 employees; the company has a total of 600 employees in 10 offices nationwide.

Ciorba Group Turns 75

This year marks the 75th anniversary of Ciorba Group, Inc., a Chicago-based civil engineering firm. Originally specializing in municipal and land development engineering, Ciorba expanded its capabilities in 1970 to include transportation and structural engineering. Its current clients include those for whom engineering services were first provided as far back as the 1930s.

Ciorba's longevity can be attributed to the staff going the extra mile to satisfy a client's needs, according to President Gerald Heimsoth.

"Staff motivation is the key to our success, and that starts with the firm's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP)," he says. "The ESOP allows all employees to directly benefit financially from strong company performance, and that can only be achieved by client satisfaction. The staff also recognizes and appreciates the trust a client puts in Ciorba to successfully complete a project."
