

JULY • AUGUST 2002
Vol. 13, No. 3

FEATURES

16

THE DAWN OF ECONOMIC RECOVERY 16

In the first of a two-part series, Engineering Inc. examines the state of the economy as it affects engineering firms.
by Maura Keller

22

TEA-21: PRINCIPLES OF REAUTHORIZATION 20

ACEC has approved a statement of principles to guide TEA-21 reauthorization. Here's an overview.
by Chris Larkin

SOFT FILES, HARD PROBLEMS 22

Most design is now done via CAD software and electronic file sharing. With the benefits of the technology have come some challenging problems.
by Maura Keller

COVER STORY

MINETA BALANCES TRANSPORTATION, SECURITY NEEDS 12

U.S. Department of Transportation Secretary Norman Mineta talks with ACEC leaders about TEA-21 reauthorization, outsourcing, and engineering tougher national security.

COVER PHOTO BY CABLE RISDON PHOTOGRAPHY

DEPARTMENTS

8

FROM ACEC TO YOU 4
Transportation, the economy, and record PAC giving; a look at this issue of Engineering Inc.

MEMBERS ASK 6
We show a rapidly expanding company how ACEC's Continuing Education can train new managers to succeed after promotion.

NEWS & NOTES 8
Thanks to ACEC-member firms such as KCE Structural Engineers, the Pentagon reconstruction is ahead of schedule.

LEGISLATIVE ACTION 10
The efforts of ACEC's "citizen lobbyists" have brought a fully restored federal highway funding package a step closer to reality.

MEMBERS IN THE NEWS 44
Staff motivation, through incentives like an ESOP, is the key to success at Ciorba Group, which is celebrating its 75th year in business.

ONE ON ONE 50
Roger Helgoth of Jacobson Helgoth Consultants talks about legislation, technology, and why he values his ACEC membership.

ACEC

AMERICAN COUNCIL OF ENGINEERING COMPANIES

Engineering Inc. promotes the advocacy and business interests of ACEC by offering news, legislative analysis and business practice information to member firms, clients, opinion leaders and policy makers.

The articles and editorials appearing in this magazine do not represent an official ACEC position or policy unless specifically identified as such.