Question 15: Does your professional liability policy provide Prior Acts Coverage?
	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
Please explain any restrictions:		We provide prior acts coverage back matching current policies. Newly placed increased limits may be subject to prior acts limitations		We generally match the Retroactive Date on the expiring policy subject to prior knowledge of claims. First time insurance buyers get a premium credit the first few years since they don't have full prior acts.	Generally, match the expiring policy's coverage.	We typically match an existing retro-date but will limit prior acts for firms who haven't carried prior coverage or who have had a gap in coverage.					Terms may be offered on an retro date inception only basis for accounts with particularly difficult loss histories.	If prior acts coverage was previously provided without interruption.		Prior acts coverage is generally available to qualified firms which have maintained continuous coverage for at least 1 year.		Prior acts coverage is typically available to firms which have been insured for at least one year.	Prior acts coverage is typically available for firms that show evidence of at least one year of prior coverage with good loss experience.	Prior knowledge of a CLAIM or CIRCUMSTANCE (event or occurrence) from which the INSURED reasonably expects that a CLAIM(s) could be made.

Question 55: What is your company's practice regarding issuing a "reservation of rights" letter?
	All reported matters will be reviewed by claims and an appropriate reservations or rights letter is issued	Reservation of Rights letters are generally issued if there is a question of coverage.	Generally, Aspen's position is not to issue ROR letters unless there is a responsible and prudent business reason for doing so.	We use them when needed to explain the coverage and preserve our rights. Underwriters are notified and asked for input if there is a coverage issue.	Reservation of rights letters are issued if required by law and necessitated by the specific facts and circumstances of a claim. Reservation of rights letters are discussed with the broker prior to issuance.	We will issue Reservation of Rights letters only when the facts in a particular case warrant doing so. We will not issue "blanket" reservation of rights letters on all reported matters.	Do not have a formal one.	They are used when the facts of the specific claim so require.	We utilize "reservation of rights" letters reminding them that coverage is not unconditional and that we require their cooperation in the resolution of these claims.			Generally, Liberty's position is not to issue ROR, unless a claims examiner determines that a letter is necessary after a review of the claim.	Moderate use where appropriate.	Reservation of rights letters are only used on a select, case-by-case basis and only when appropriate e.g. claims that fall outside the scope of Professional Liability coverage.	We contact the broker and the insured prior to releasing the letter.	Travelers claim managers provide the insured with a written explanation of coverage for each claim.		XL issues reservation of rights letters only on claims that contain allegations which fall outside the purview of coverage and, if found to be true or valid, would not be covered under the policy. Such reservation of rights letters do not imply that any of the allegations are true or valid, but are provided to inform the insured of the potential coverage ramifications, their rights and the rights of the Company. All such reservation of rights issues are discussed in detail with the insured and their agent before the issuance of a letter and the insured is requested to challenge any reservation of rights they believe to have been made in error.
