

CASE Tool 10-2: Construction Administration Log

ABSTRACT

Construction administration is a time when good record keeping and prompt response is essential to the success of the project and to limiting the risk of the structural engineer. For this reason and many others, a well-organized and maintained construction administration log is essential.