Welcome to the American Council of Engineering Companies. Representing more than 5,000 companies, we are the voice of the engineering industry in Washington, DC and throughout the nation.

With roots dating back more than 100 years, ACEC is a federation of 52 state and regional councils representing more than 600,000 engineers, architects, land surveyors and other specialists.

Our primary mission is to strengthen the business environment for our member firms through government advocacy, political action, and business education.

In the fight to rebuild and renew America, the American Council of Engineering Companies is in the forefront. ACEC Member Firms are at the heart of the built environment, bringing us bridges, roads, water, sanitation, transit, rail, buildings, environmental protection and cleanup. They are leaders in the policy areas as well. ACEC provides...leadership and insight, counsel and advice. Nobody does it as well and as systematically.

~ Congressman Earl Blumenauer (D-OR)

I commend ACEC and its member companies and employees for their immeasurable service and contribution to the country. ACEC is an effective and growing advocate for advancing the practice of engineering and the promotion of private enterprise, working to further the business interests and opportunities of the world’s most respected engineering companies.

~ Congressman Ralph Hall (R-TX)
Government Advocacy

Bottom Line Results

ACEC is “on the point” for the engineering industry, promoting infrastructure investment and eliminating liability and regulatory barriers—in Congress, Executive agencies, and in the courts. ACEC’s Political Action Committee is the largest in the A/E industry—and in the top 4 percent in the country—helping to elect House and Senate members who support ACEC’s agenda. And ACEC’s Minuteman Fund is the industry’s “war chest” for state legislative and legal battles of national importance.

★ Landmark court decisions to protect industry
★ Expanding Qualifications-Based Selection
★ New investments in infrastructure
★ Uniform, FAR-based procurement rules
★ Contracting out of A/E services
★ Expanding energy markets
★ Regulatory reforms to protect the industry
★ New tax law that benefits C Corps & passthrough firms
★ Expanded liability protections
